Sheriff Appeals to Public Against Prettrial Judgment of Beating

The story at Page 1, told to the police on April 27, detailed the incident in which a man was beaten by Sheriff John D. Peak, but on May 4, the same man was arrested and charged with assault and battery. The incident occurred when the man attempted to enter the sheriff's office without an appointment. The sheriff then demanded his credentials, which the man refused to show. The man was then beaten, and the sheriff's assistant ordered him to leave.

In response to the incident, Sheriff John D. Peak released a statement saying, "I am deeply sorry for any inconvenience caused to the man. I assure you that this type of incident will not happen again."

Great Northern To Exhibit Cars

A special exhibit of railroad cars dating back to 1861, when the Great Northern Railroad was established, will be held at the newspaper's offices beginning May 12. The exhibit will feature several cars, including one of the earliest trains used by the company. In addition, a special section of the newspaper will be devoted to the history of trains and their impact on society.

Firm to Remodel, Occupy Floor

West Coast Lumberjacks in Seattle has leased a portion of the third floor of the newspaper's building. The firm plans to remodel the space and occupy the floor in the near future. The lease agreement also includes options for expansion in the future.

Student Nurses Design Posters

Basic Wagner, student nurse at the hospital, painted a series of posters to promote health and safety among students. The posters feature a range of health topics, including nutrition, fitness, and hygiene. The posters are expected to be displayed in the student cafeteria and other areas of the hospital.
